EXT. CLASSROOM- DAY.

TWO STUDENTS walk into the classroom - it is filled with old furniture and is clearly more of a storage room now than a classroom. Both students wear a school uniform and are clearly hiding a secret. FIONA, 14 years old, pulls an enormous book from her shoulder bag and it lands with a thud on a desk. Dust rises from the desk. SALLY, 13 years old, looks nervously at the book and then at Fiona.

SALLY

(nervously)

I thought we agreed we weren't going to read from this book again...

Fiona opens the book to a specific page

FIONA

We can't just forget about what happened last time! If we read the book again, we might be able to call more characters out of the pages.

Sally fidgets with her blonde hair while peering out the door, looking for to see if anyone is in the hallway.
