

Name: _____

Team BIPS

Date: _____

Career

Curricular Competency Evaluated: Recognize their personal preferences, skills, strengths and abilities and connect them to possible career choices.

PERSONALITY REFLECTION

- 1) After completing the personality survey on myBlueprint, how did the report describe your personality? Use the overview at the bottom of your report.

- 2) List your energy style (introvert or extrovert). Use details to explain how this energy style could be used as a strength in school or in a future career.

Energy Personality Style: _____

My strength and explanation:

- 3) List your information gathering style (sensing or intuition). Use details to explain how this information gathering style could be used as a strength in school or in a future career.

Information Gathering Style: _____

My strength and explanation:

- 4) List your decision making style (thinking or feeling). Use details to explain how this decision making style could be used as a strength in school or in a future career.

Decision Making Style: _____

My strength and explanation:

5) List your lifestyle and structure style (judging or perceiving). Use details to explain how this lifestyle and structure style could be used as a strength in school or in a future career.

Lifestyle and Structure Style:

My strength and explanation:

6) Give an example of a career your personality style would match well with. Explain why.

7) Give an example of a career your personality style would not match well with. Explain why.

Acquiring	Developing	Refining	Mastering
Student lists their personality style.	Student can list their personality style and is beginning to relate it to personal strengths. Detail is lacking.	Student explains their personality style and can relate it to personal strengths and. Explanation is detailed and thoughtful.	Student explains in detail their personality style. Student is able to relate personality style to strengths, as well as, impact of school and future career choices. All explanations are detailed, thoughtful and insightful.